You’re Invited to a SNEAK Preview of

Coming Home

Military Families Cope with Change

When: March 24, 2009
6:00 p.m.

Where:
Sheridan Theater
Fort Sill, OK

Sesame Street Television Special featuring Queen Latifah and John Mayer

With help from Elmo and his Sesame Street friends, this program tells the stories of service members returning home with injuries and explores the heroic struggles their families face on the path to finding a "new normal."

Co-Viewing Recommended: This family program is about coping with combat-related injuries. It focuses on the courage of service members and their families. We highly recommend that children watch “Coming Home” with a parent or caregiver who can answer any questions they may have.

“Coming Home” will air nationwide on PBS on April 1st at 8 p.m.
(check your local listings).
